1. SHE WAS A YOUNG FRENCH PEASANT, BORN IN 1412.

2. JOAN OF ARC WAS NOT A KNIGHT OR A TRAINED SOLDIER, AND SHE COULD NOT READ OR WRITE.

3. AT ONE POINT SHE TOOK THE NAME "JEHANNE LA PUCELLE" MEANING "JOAN THE MAID," CLAIMING SHE DID NOT KNOW HER LAST NAME.

St. Joan of Arc was born in 1412 to parents of the French peasant class in the village of Domremy during the Hundred Year's War fought between England and France. From an early age, she heard the voices of St. Michael, St. Catherine of Alexandria, and St. Margaret. At the age of thirteen, these three saints told Joan to drive the English out of France, after over 80 years of war. When she was just sixteen years old, Joan joined the French army. With divine assistance, Joan led the French army to many victories. However, she was captured by the English. The English, recognized her importance to French morale and tried her as a heretic in a sham trial. She was condemned to death and on May 30th, 1431 she was burned at the stake in Rouen. Her ashes were scattered in the Seine River. A second Church trial 25 years later nullified her guilty verdict. Today, St. Joan of Arc is a patron Saint of France and is portrayed throughout French film, literature, and art.

"I am not afraid; I was born to do this"
- Saint Joan of Arc
